Peter Davison

Poet of Motion

Juggler, dancer and physical humorist: Peter Davison is a one-of-a-kind artist who transforms the stage into a magical world of motion. With virtuoso movement abilities (former National Juggling Champion and winner of the Ballet Builders Award for New Choreography) Peter animates ordinary objects in surprising, humorous and, at times, poignant ways. It's a kinetic celebration of life unlike anything you've seen before!

"Consummate movement artist Peter Davison's new one-man show makes for an enchanting evening...It's one amazing bit after another, some tantalizingly brief, all brilliant."

Dance Magazine

"Davison covers an enormous territory... and manages throughout to hold, captivate and win an audience all the way."

Denver Post

"...a true master, one who has so perfected his craft that he appears to be casually playing with universal laws."

Cal State Long Beach Forty Niner
